RE: 15-FOIA-124 Tickets; Information - [REDACTED] 6/10/15 Incident

Dear Mr. Glissendorf:

We are in receipt of your request for information pursuant to the Illinois Freedom of Information Act, 5 ILCS 140/1 et seq. (“FOIA”).

I. Background

On June 19, 2015, we received your request for copies of tickets / information regarding [REDACTED] and an incident occurring on 6/10/2015 at Touhy & Lehigh, involving a 2000 Ford F450 striking a pole (“Request”). Your Request is granted in part and denied in part.

II. Responsive Document

In response to your Request, Metra is providing you with the following records:

- Citations Nos. R021213; R021214 & R024363;
- Illinois Traffic Crash Report;
- MPD Prisoner Property Form;
- Mug shot Report & Arrest Record;
- Recognizance Bond #I470103; and
- Vehicle Tow Report

(“Responsive Documents”).

III. Partial Denial

While FOIA requires public bodies to provide access to public records generally, FOIA also authorizes units of government to withhold certain information. Therefore, Attorney Thomas Stuebner has determined that the following portions of the Responsive Documents are exempt from disclosure under certain provisions of FOIA:

1. The employee identification numbers, personal telephone numbers, home address, vehicle license plate number, and driver’s license number of the parties mentioned in the Responsive Documents are being redacted because they are exempt from disclosure under Section 7(1)(b) of FOIA, which exempts “private information.” “Employee identification numbers,” “personal telephone numbers,” “home addresses,” “vehicle license plate numbers,” and “driver’s license numbers” are specifically mentioned within the definition of “private information” found in Section 2(c-5) of FOIA.

2. The date of birth of the party, as well as the name of the third party mentioned in the Responsive Documents, are being redacted because they are exempt from disclosure under Section 7(1)(c) of FOIA, which exempts “personal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy....” Section 7(1)(c) goes on to say that, “ ‘Unwarranted invasion of personal privacy’ means the disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject’s right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information.” It has been determined that the aforementioned data falls squarely within that definition and its redaction is appropriate under FOIA.
3. Section 7(1)(a) of FOIA exempts “[i]nformation specifically prohibited from disclosure by federal or State law or rules and regulations implementing federal or State law.” 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(a). Accordingly, the home address, date of birth, driver’s license number, and physical description of the party mentioned in the report is exempt from disclosure per the Driver’s Privacy Protection Act, 18 U.S.C. § 2721 et seq., which prohibits individuals from knowingly obtaining or disclosing “personal information” from a motor vehicle record.

IV. Right of Review

You have the right to have the partial denial of your Request reviewed by the Public Access Counselor (“PAC”) of the Illinois Attorney General’s Office. 5 ILCS 140/9.5(a). You can file your Request for Review with the PAC by writing to:
