RE: 16-FOIA-310 Police Report MP-16-000-19608, Trans: [REDACTED]

Dear Claims Adjuster:

We are in receipt of your request under the Illinois Freedom of Information Act, 5 ILCS 140/1 et seq.

I. Background

On December 9, 2016 we received your request for police report #MP-16-000-19608 regarding the theft of an automobile occurring on June 3, 2016 in a Metra Station Commuter Parking Lot (“Request”). Your Request is granted in part and denied in part.

II. Responsive Document

In response to your Request, Metra is providing you with a copy of the above-referenced police report (“Responsive Document”). The Metra Police Department has advised that due to a software malfunction, the photos referenced in the Responsive Document are not available.

III. Partial Denial

While FOIA requires public bodies to provide access to public records generally, FOIA also authorizes units of government to withhold certain information. Therefore, Attorney Jamie Harrmann has determined that the following portions of the Responsive Document are exempt from disclosure under certain provisions of FOIA:

1. The employee identification numbers, passwords, personal telephone number and home address of the parties mentioned in the Responsive Document are being redacted because they are exempt from disclosure under Section 7(1)(b) of FOIA, which exempts “private information.” “Employee identification numbers,” “passwords,” “personal telephone numbers,” and “home addresses” are specifically mentioned within the definition of “private information” found in Section 2(c-5) of FOIA.
2. The date of birth and the physical descriptions of the party mentioned in the Responsive Document are being redacted because they are exempt from disclosure under Section 7(1)(c) of FOIA, which exempts “personal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy....” Section 7(1)(c) goes on to say that, “‘Unwarranted invasion of personal privacy’ means the disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject’s right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information.” It has been determined that the aforementioned data falls squarely within that definition and its redaction is appropriate under FOIA.

3. Section 7(1)(a) of FOIA exempts “[i]nformation specifically prohibited from disclosure by federal or State law or rules and regulations implementing federal or State law.” 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(a). Accordingly, the home address, date of birth, driver’s license number, and any physical description of the party mentioned in the Responsive Document are exempt from disclosure per the Driver’s Privacy Protection Act, 18 U.S.C. § 2721 et seq., which prohibits individuals from knowingly obtaining or disclosing “personal information” from a motor vehicle record.

IV. Denial

The RC 4005 form mentioned in the Responsive Document is denied for the following reasons: Damage and injury reports are exempt under 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(m) and 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(s). Section 7(1)(m) authorizes exemption from disclosure of “[m]aterials prepared or compiled by or for a public body in anticipation of a criminal, civil or administrative proceeding upon the request of an attorney advising the public body...” Damage and injury reports are prepared by Metra for several reasons, one of which is in anticipation of any possible legal proceedings that may stem from the occurred incident. Additionally, the above-mentioned reports are also exempt under Section 7(1)(s), which authorizes exemption from disclosure of “loss or risk management information, records, data, advice or communications.” These reports are maintained by Metra’s Risk Management Department as part of its duties to identify, assess, and manage risks. Accordingly, the above-mentioned report is hereby denied.

V. Right of Review

You have the right to have the partial denial of your Request reviewed by the Public Access Counselor (“PAC”) of the Illinois Attorney General’s Office. 5 ILCS 140/9.5(a). You can file your Request for Review with the PAC by writing to:
