Chicago, IL 60661

Dear Ms. Redmond:

Through an article on Chicago.cbslocal.com, a copy of which is enclosed for your reference, our attention has been directed to the actions of [REDACTED], and Lombard Police Patrol Officer Dan Herrera, who on January 14, 2019, reportedly prevented a 96-year-old woman from being struck by an oncoming train near Grace and St. Charles in Lombard, and we are interested in considering the matter.

The enclosed sheet will further explain our interest.

In an effort to establish the facts of this case, we are respectfully requesting your assistance by providing us a copy of your report on the incident. In the event the report is unavailable, would you kindly complete and return the enclosed form in its place? An electronic version (pdf) of the form may be emailed to you by contacting us at either 1-800-447-8900 or pdfrequest@carnegiehero.org and providing us your email address.

Please be assured that our interest in this matter is solely for purposes of award consideration, and whatever we hear from you will be kept confidential. We will be grateful for your assistance, and we look forward to hearing from you.

With kind regards, we are,

Sincerely,
CARNEGIE HERO FUND COMMISSION
