Fare Fares — Available on weekdays and weekends. Combined and one way ticket rates will apply for a fare equal to or above three (3) US dollars per adult.

Student Fares — Students may purchase a reduced One-Way, Two-Way or Monthly Pass. In order to purchase a student ticket, student must present a valid student I.D. (example: student photo identification card, student school administration letter, student school administration letter with name and authorized signature or any other similar identification approved by the District). The student must be present at the ticket window along with the student ticket. Failure to do so will result in full fare payment. Student tickets are not transferable.

Group Fares — For pre-organized groups consisting of 15-15 people, a special rate can be arranged. Contact Metra Passenger Services for details.

Senior Citizen/Disability Fares — Senior citizens 65 or older, when accompanied by a fare-paying adult (up to three children), are eligible for a reduced one-way, 10-Ride or Monthly Pass. Student tickets are not transferable.

Reserving seats with parcels or coats is strictly prohibited.

Obscene language which is disturbing to others is prohibited.
