

An environmental review will evaluate and document potential environmental impacts of the station options, train yard and track infrastructure needs. The Environmental Report will help determine site selections and cost information.

Components of the Environmental Report:

- Field surveys and documentation
- Historic resources technical report
- High-level analysis of environmental factors:
 - ◆ Air quality
 - ◆ Water quality
 - ◆ Noise and vibration
 - ◆ Threatened or endangered species

